SERMON NOTES

SANCTIFIED DISPOSITION: A People Set Apart for Christ

Ephesians 4:17–32

Defining Terms

To be sanctified is to be _____ — set apart by God and for God.

I. First Movement: _____ the Old Way (vv. 17-22)

- Sin acts like _____ to the conscience — the more we indulge, the deeper the numbness spreads.
- We don't manage the old self or try to improve it; we leave it in the _____.

II. Second Movement: _____ the Renewal (v. 23)

- You cannot self-improve a _____; the dead don't need improvement, they need resurrection.
- Our part is to _____ and receive the work the Spirit is doing in us.

III. Third Movement: _____ the New Self (vv. 24-32)

- The new self is created in true _____ — right-living toward others, right-worship toward God.
- We forgive others because we have already _____ forgiveness in Christ (v. 32).

THE BIG IDEA

Because we are in Christ, we must no longer live like the world; we must live like the new _____ we are — created new in true righteousness and holiness.
