

“The Habit of hello: why we need each other”
Hebrews 10:24-25

You don't get the culture you want. You get the culture you create.

Followers of Jesus make a habit of meeting.

Why do we meet?

To Consider

To Spur

To Work

To Encourage

When we truly meet Jesus, our meetings become a place where people truly meet.

CHRISTlike Characteristic: Relates with other centered loved.

LifeGroup Questions: Applying the Teaching to Our Lives

1. What is something that God whispered to you during the sermon today?
2. Read Hebrews 10:24-25. As a group, what are some ways we have “spurred one another on toward love and good deeds”? Be specific.
3. What are some ways you have been encouraged by this group? If possible, go around and share an encouraging trait/characteristic from each member.
4. We heard that one definition of courage is “to tell the story of who you are with your whole heart”. How comfortable are you sharing who you truly are at church/in life? How does being honest about who we are help us become like Jesus?
5. How does encouragement help others become courageous? Do you have an example you can share from your life?
6. Is Vermilion campus a place that operates more like a meeting or a place where people meet? What's the difference? How can we improve?
7. Have you given up meeting people? Be honest. How can you, specifically, make a habit of meeting others?
8. Now, as a group, consider 2-3 ways you can hold each other accountable to help create a culture where we make a habit of intentionally meeting everyone that walks into our church.
